While working on his farm across the Mississippi river one day recently, C. R. Best of Estobing unscratched a small brass plate on which was inscribed the name and address of Michael Murphy, a resident of that place. Mr. Murphy, who recognized it as belonging to a dog collar worn by a fox whom he had owned over twenty-six years ago. It is thought that the dog ran a fox hole into him and, endeavoring to get out, slipped the collar over its head. The collar was lost in Peru.
